A detailed historical map of the Ortigia district in Syracuse, Sicily. The map shows the city's layout, including the harbor, the city walls, and the location of the 'Piazza del Mercato' (Market Square) near the waterfront. The map is oriented with North at the top. The harbor is on the left, and the city extends inland to the right. The 'Piazza del Mercato' is marked with a black rectangle near the waterfront. The word 'ORTIGIA' is written in the upper right corner. The map is a black and white line drawing.

This architectural floor plan illustrates the intricate layout of the Basilica of San Vitale. The plan is characterized by its complex, non-rectangular shape, featuring a central nave flanked by side aisles and a series of chapels and rooms radiating from the central space. The apse at the top left contains the main altar and is surrounded by a semi-circular ambulatory. The plan also shows the location of the baptistery and other significant rooms, such as the library and the treasury. The drawing is a detailed line drawing, showing the walls, columns, and the overall structure of the building.
